Collaboration with schools for Internship of B.Ed. Students

Sadbhavna College of Education for Women, Raikot making Collaboration with S.B.D.S. Public School, Jalal diwal provide practical teaching experience and professional exposure to B.Ed. students, the institution collaborates with various schools for internship programs. These collaborations help student-teachers develop pedagogical skills, classroom management techniques, lesson planning abilities, and overall professional competence. The internship program is conducted in private schools where B.Ed. students are placed for a specified duration under the supervision of experienced faculty. During the internship, students actively participate in classroom teaching, morning assemblies, co-curricular activities, evaluation processes, school administration, and parent-teacher interactions.

The objectives of the collaboration include:

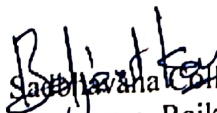

- Providing real classroom teaching experience.
- Enhancing communication and teaching skills.
- Developing understanding of school environment and administration.
- Encouraging innovative teaching methodologies and use of ICT.
- Building professional ethics and leadership qualities among future teachers.

The institution maintains regular coordination with partner schools to ensure smooth conduct of internship activities. Feedback from school principals, mentor teachers, and students is collected to improve the quality of training and professional development.

These collaborations strengthen the relationship between teacher education institutions and schools, ensuring that B.Ed. students receive meaningful and hands-on teaching experience aligned with contemporary educational needs.

We will Thankful for your cooperation in the field of Teacher education
